

Teachers are Talking about the Daybooks of Critical Reading and Writing for Grades 2-5.

“I am very impressed with the Daybook. It is an important Language Arts tool to help my students become critical readers while sharpening their skills.”

Margaret Harrison, Teacher
Clara Elementary
Clara, MS

“I liked the blend of the genres and selections for kids to read. I especially like the fact that kids are reading interactively. I think that the modeling that is offered within the text gives the kids a great framework to begin their thinking and responding. I would also say that the Daybook does allow a student to develop a link between reading and writing that does not seem to occur as often with other materials.”

Vickie Weiss, Teacher
City School
Grand Blanc, MI

“This is the best book for combining reading and writing instruction!”

Paula Wilkes, Teacher
Gilham Elementary
Eugene, OR

“I would also like to add, to my great delight, these books cover everything that is in our state standards for Reading and Writing. This means I don’t have to spend so much time and money supplementing my Reading and Writing program.”

Linda James, Teacher
Greenbrier Elementary
Glendale, AZ
